

Hey Buddy - I've got a bone to pick with you... ...do I look like a Kitty Cat?

And you always thought that jaws only appeared just when you thought it was safe to go back into the water.

Wrong!

It's the kind of thing that can happen. You get an irate call from your customer savaging you over the fact that Kitty's chow somehow found its way into Buster's bowl, due to a slight mix up on the delivery pallets - and you suddenly find yourself in the doghouse.

Not good!

So why feel all mixed up about your deliveries? Call us and we'll show you how to keep your customers (and Buster) happy.
