

The advantages of using Elite Services for your unloading needs

Legalities: We are responsible for all employment tax collection and payment, including State and Federal unemployment insurance.

Liability: Even in the most efficient warehouse, accidents can happen and equipment sometimes fails. With this firmly in mind, we maintain Workers Compensation and Commercial General Liability insurance policies. This important coverage protects you and us jointly for total peace of mind.

Reliability: In the event that one of our lumpers is delayed in reporting to site, then upon notification, another one will be dispatched immediately, ensuring your operations will not be compromised and delayed. We have a proud reputation amongst our clients for solid reliability.

Experience: For the past fourteen years, we pride ourselves on having provided a wide range of loading solutions, unloading and palletizing, produce, frozen goods, groceries, LTL, tires, trees and many other goods. We also have many years experience in the following areas: trans-loading, roll over, clean up, as well as dealing with overweight, and over width loads speedily and efficiently. Our operatives are highly experienced in accurate loading for optimum weight distribution, cube and stability.

Efficiency: We operate a fully computerized invoicing and payroll system. Our Supervisors have complete control of labor on their respective docks. Our company functions in a highly efficient manner with minimal mid-management, together with a low operating overhead, resulting in top rates of pay for our legal lumper services.

Communication: We employ bilingual Supervisors, ensuring smooth liaison in your workplace.

Security: At Elite Services, we believe that honesty is not only the best policy – it is the only policy. All employees are carefully background checked and screened, and because we pay them top rates, you have the added assurance that you only get qualified and honest help - always.

Pricing Policy: Our tiered rate schedule ensures that each load will be priced to accurately match the labor required. We will be happy to customize a rate schedule if required, to satisfy your specific requirements however complex.

Additional Help: During your busy periods, we can arrange at short notice additional lumpers through our existing network of experienced and carefully chosen part-time helpers.

Direct Billing: Our policy of direct billing eliminates the need for cash transactions between drivers and lumpers.

On Call: We are on call 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Our key staff are also reachable via cellphone. This is your peace of mind guarantee in case of an urgent requirement.

Speedy, cost effective and perfectly organized!

The Experts: Thank you for considering Elite Services for your in-house lumber service requirements. You have the assurance and peace of mind guarantee of over 14 years expertise and experience. You also have the added benefit of the services of the most loyal and honest employees in the lumping community.

Highly Competitive: Elite Services will meet and even beat any competitor's rates, because if it can be done cheaper and better, then we will do it!

Motivation: But how can we do it and have cheaper rates whilst paying our employees more? We utilize experienced Team Leaders at the warehouse who in turn supervise and motivate their staff to minimize wasted time and costly unloading and loading mistakes. Additionally, our organization is fully computerized to maximize office and management efficiency. This plus our low overhead is the key to our success and indeed yours also.

Every Penny Counts: And the benefit doesn't end there. Because we pay our lumpers more, they have the added incentive to get the job done more accurately and more speedily, and that means extra money in your pocket. This, plus our superior pay plan, rewards everyone.

Confidence: We understand the inherent difficulties in switching lumber services, however, as we are fully experienced in a wide range of product handling, any such difficulties are all but eliminated during and immediately after a change over. So certain of our ability to effect a smooth transition to our service, that we are prepared to offer an introductory 20% discount during the first three weeks of our contract to provide you services. How's that for a trouble free and cast iron guarantee?

A Superb Team: As an example. We switched Acme Warehouse smoothly and without problems to our services, and since then they have enjoyed the convenience of the same core of experienced lumpers, resulting that their management have congratulated us that our lumpers are 'the best they have ever experienced'.

Teamwork: At Elite Services, we work as a team and would like to put that team to work for you. Additionally, we would like you to play an important role on our team. Our Team Leader will become an important and integral member of your supervisory staff.

Committed To You: We offer the many advantage of a small tight-knit business. Passionate commitment. Endless enthusiasm. Unrivalled dedication. Unbeatable costs. This combined with practices that large businesses many times our size would find hard to match, such as unbelievable flexibility and efficiency makes Elite Services a truly unique business proposition.

Dedication: We are totally dedicated and fully prepared to work hard to improve your bottom line, while continuing to function as a viable organization which can and will expand to fully meet your needs, while giving you the full benefit of a better, cheaper and more efficient service.
